MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: Ambassador Swank's Anguish and Ambassador Godley's Response

1. When I returned to my office at about 1130 this morning (19 June) -- after our discussion of the Cambodian problem in your office -- I found I had been called by Mr. Lloyd Rives (State's Cambodian Desk Officer) who, at Godley's behest, had asked me to attend a meeting in Godley's office at 1600 this afternoon. I immediately called Rives back to find out what was up, but he was at lunch. We finally got together over the telephone at about 1400.

2. It turns out that at Dick Kennedy's instigation, Godley is convoking Kennedy, Dennis Doolin, a senior ISA military officer and myself to discuss the attached NODIS cable from Swank. (The Agency was apparently not on distribution for this cable. Godley sent me a copy via LDX. Given the urgency and the subject, I have reproduced copies for the recipients of this note.)

4. In the interests of time, I am circulating this promptly. Mr. Shackley apparently has a schedule conflict (according to his secretary). If I can get hold of [REDACTED] (who has gone to his dentist), I will take him to the meeting.
